

Open to discussing agri laws with agitating farmers: Govt

FE BUREAU

New Delhi, July 20

THE GOVERNMENT ON Tuesday refrained from giving a categorical reply to a parliament question as to whether it was considering scrapping the farm laws in near future. It, however, said in Lok Sabha that they "will remain open" to discussions with agitating farmers to resolve the issue.

Agriculture Minister Narendra Singh Tomar on July 8 had said that the Centre would not repeat the three farm laws while it was ready to hold talks with the agitating farmers on the provisions of the Acts.

In written replies on several questions related to farmers' protest, Tomar said: "Some of the farmers' unions have been protesting against newly enacted farm laws and the main demands of agitating farmers' unions regarding the three farm laws, were for their repeal. Various efforts have been made by the government to end the protests. However, farmer unions never agreed to discuss except the demand for repeal."

Tomar added that the "Government is always open to discussion with farmers union and will remain open to discussion with agitating farmers to resolve the issue."

Listing out details of the discussions held with farmers union till January 22, the minister said the government had held 11 rounds of negotiations with agitating farmers' unions to resolve the issues.

"The government has been engaged in serious, sensitive and active discussions with the farmers' unions to resolve the issues. During various rounds of discussions, the government continuously requested the unions to discuss the provisions of the farm laws, so that if there is an objection to any provision, the advancement can be made towards a resolution of those," Tomar said.

Thousands of farmers, mainly from Punjab, Haryana, Rajasthan and western Uttar Pradesh, have been camping at different border points of Delhi for nearly eight months demanding repeal of the three contentious laws and to ensure a legally guaranteed Minimum Support Price (MSP) mechanism. In a separate question as to whether the government is aware that many agitating farmers have died or fallen ill during the movement, Tomar said: "Government of India has no such record. However, the government, during a discussion with farmers' union, appealed to them that children and elders especially women should be allowed to go home given the cold and Covid-19 situation."

Reduced health budget allocations affecting marginalised groups: Oxfam

FE BUREAU

New Delhi, July 20

LOWER BUDGET ALLOCATION and growing socio-economic inequalities in India are disproportionately affecting health outcomes of marginalised groups due to the absence of Universal Health Coverage (UHC), Oxfam India said in a report.

"Data shows that 65.7% of the households belonging to the general category have access to improved, non-shared sanitation facilities while only 25.9% scheduled tribes (ST) households have improved, non-shared sanitation facilities," according to Oxfam India's Inequality Report 2021.

About 12.6% more children are stunted in scheduled castes (SC) households than those in households belonging to the general category. And the chances of a child dying before his fifth birthday is three times higher for the bottom 20% of the population as compared to the top 20%, it said.
